Object Clause

The Nebraska Medical Initiative seeks to add a new section 31 to Article III to the Nebraska Constitution whose object is to allow patients to use, possess, distribute and grow marijuana for medical purposes.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment Language

To add a new section 31 in existing Article III

By October 1, 2017, the State of Nebraska shall implement and enact statutory rules and regulations allowing the private noncommercial growing, possession, consumption, and distribution of cannabis, also known as marijuana, for any patient with a debilitating medical condition as determined by a licensed Nebraska physician

Nothing in this section shall be construed to conflict with laws prohibiting persons from engaging in conduct that endangers others.

If any provision of this section or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this section that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this section are severable.
